Base Ball Tq-day.

All the arrangements have been made for a game of base ball on the new fair grounds this attenoon that promises to be a very interesting one. It will be played by a club from Welsburg, composed of well known young pentlemen, and a picked nine from Wheeling's base ball enthasiasts, under the management of Major J. Kolsey Hall, the well known patron of out door sports. Last Saturday a Wheeling picked nine went up to Wellsburg and were gloriously defeated to life upper fetwagaty-six to nine. Thirsting for revenge they challenged the Wellsburgers for to-day's game. The boys have gone to considerable expense in arranging for to-day's game and will accordingly charge an admission fee of 15 cents for the purpose of defraying the same, also 10 cents for seats in the grand sland. Ladies will be admitted free. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. The names of the nine and their positions will be found in the advertising columns of this issue.

The Rogers Case Dismissed.

In police court yesterday morning Judge Jeffers dismissed the case brought by Health Officer Garrison sgainst Mr. Alex Rogers, for refusing to connect certain sinks in the rear of his Main street business houses, as ordered to by the Health Officer. It is understood that the warrant sworn out by the Health Officer was not brought under the proper section and was therefore defective and had to be dismissed. Dr. Garrison at once swore out a warrant for F. H. Lange, of F. H. Lange & Co., occupying one of the Rogers houses, under section 33 of the ordinance on offenses, which declares that it shall be unlawful for any person to suffer or permit the waste water from his or her house or kilchen to run or flow into or upon any street, alley, public square or landing, when there are sewers on such streets accessible to such house. This case will be up before this morning's court.

Ten of the coopers who have been engaged in the shop of the Bellaire Nail Works Company were paid off and ordered to take their tools out of the shop vesterdsy morning by Manager Cochran. The trouble dates back to the time of the nail feeders' strike, but fen of the coopers who had worked a day and a hall, for which they expected pay last Friday, went to the office of the company Monday to see about their pay. Manager Cochran was sent for and informed the men that they would be paid yesterday morning, when he paid them off and ordered them to lake their tools out. The cutting department of the cooper shop will be started up to-day and work continued until a stock of staves, etc., can be secured for use in case of an emergency.

He said, in referring to the deals in wool thus far this season, "It think fully one-third of the wool is still in the hands of farmers who think they see a sharp advance in the price before a year. In fact, every farmer who is in shape to hold his crop is holding it. The general opinion is that next year wool will be worth money. The terribly long winter of '84-5 exhausted the resources of all of the smaller farmers, and, indeed, those of many of the larger ones also. They had, in many instances, to buy grain and hay to feed their stock, and many had to borrow money to purchase these supplies. Gracies when it came to examine the estimate scaled it down six or seven thousand dollars. The Finance committee when it came to examine all the estimates presented, found it necessary to lop off about fen thousand dollars, and afterwards finding that it had made a mistake of ten thousand dollars in its footings chopped off another ten thousand dollars, and still later finding that one item of expense had not been previded for, found it necessary to take another silect from the Board's estimate to provide for the forgotten item.

This left in round numbers about $52,000 for the Board, exclusive of the ten Each train arriving during the day brought to the ground a large number of people, the majority of whem came from this city. The advantages of the switch to the grounds is of course being realized every day by those who have been visiting the grounds from year to year, and many express surprise it was not built years ago. The earnest appeal of Dr. Nerris will not soon be forgotten. He took as his text, "They bated me without a cause," and for forty minutes the eyes of a large audionics were riveted on the speaker. At the close of the sermon Rev. G. E. Hite, standing on a bench in the altar, delivered an exhortation that was full of earnestness and warning. Only two persons presented 000 for the Board, exclusive of the ten 000 for the Board, exclusive of the ten-cent levy, as the ordinance making that levy had not then been passed. This amoust, $52,000, included the Board's contingent fund, which was based on the amount derived from that source last year, which was quite large. This contingent fund is made upor tents from city scales, fines and costs imposed by the police court and the revenues from the markets and wharves, all of which is placed to the Board's credit to be expended in the pay-ment of contingent expenses, and for no other purpose.

was dismissed.

The Christian people at the meeting express surprise and view the situation from a spiritual standpoint as alarming. Sermons are preached, exhoritations deligiered, prayers offered. All these, aided by individual effort on the part of the followers of Christ, seem to be of no avail. The unconverted are unmoved, appear careless and profess indifference.

The morning service in the tabernacle was largely attended. Rev. D. H. K. Dix had charge of the service. Many prayers were offered; frequently three persons would engage in prayer before the congregation would rise from their knees.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Pershins, of Pittsburgh, Pa., occupied the pulpit in the paylion, preaching from the text. "Many are called, but few are chosen." In the outset, two propositions were advanced: First, the call; secend, the selection or choice. There are three characteristics of the call—it is an intelligible call; it is an earnest call, and it is an honest call.

The choice: It is possible for a Christian to do a lawful thing to a very unlawful degree. Sin is progressive; mental habite, worldly habits, are making damation. court, and owing to the shut down of the mills and the scarcity of money this is only about half what it was last year. The police find that citizens having little or no money to spend for luxuries, do not get drunk and carouse as formerly, and if they do, they prefer in a large number of cases to work out their fine and cost "on the hill," in which case, the Board gets nothing. The police records of this year show a marked, falling off in the number of arrests and the amount of money received, as compared with last years records.

Very little is being received from scales, as compared with last years records.

Very little is being received from scales, market, and wharves, and the Board has bad give up all hopes of making several contemplated and needed improvements. The passage of the ten centlevy ordinance made it possible to do an important piece of work, although the money from the levy will not be in the treastry for several menths to come; however Col. Campbell, the contractor, will proceed with the work and wait for his money. The Board realizing that its contingent fund was falling far behind what it was estimated that it would be, and also be lieving that it would experience difficulty. At 3:30, Rev. D. L. Ash conducted the service in the auditorium, preaching to a large and attentive congregation.

Atainson, was present and delivered one of his happy addresses that abounded in beautiful thought and glowing language. Mr. Todd's appointment was confirmed by Council also his salary $1,200. Council has not been consulted as to the reduction.

Rev. Richard Norris was the minister that appeared before the large audience in the auditorium at night. Dr. Norris took for his subject, "The folly of Rejecting Christ as Revealed in the Ornclixion."

The sermon was delivered in Dr. Morris' earnest manner, and frequently through its delivery, could be seen the handkerchief raised to wipe away the fallling tear.

An invitation was given to those who desired to "fise from the wrath to come" to come and kneel at the altar.

She said that she used to reside at Harper's Ferry, and that her husband was killed daring the war in 1803. Mrs. Kemp might have socceeded in playing her game, but for the fact that C.F. Shafer, of Farkerspurg, had telegraphed to the Odd Fellow Officials in this city to be on the lookout. She related to Mr. Seamon that she had traveled all the way from Texas, and wanted to be assisted to Gettysburg. Mr. Seamon hinted that credentials in her case would not be out of the way, when she exhibited papers endorsed by Henrietta Lodge No. 32, of Coal Valley, W. Va. After examining them Mr. Seamon informed her that he would take possession of them, and before he had time to detain her she was out of sight. The papers were forged and the of sight. The papers were forged and the women was a conscienceless impostor.
